0800 • Registration and Networking Breakfast (provided)

0900 • Welcome and Connect to Purpose
Charlie Alexander, RN, MSN, MBA, CPTC-CEO, Living Legacy Foundation of Maryland
Robin Coarts and Vanessa Velez-Living Legacy Foundation of Maryland

0920 • What to do when disaster hits?
Moderator: Sharyn Sawczack, NJ Organ and Tissue Sharing Network
Panel:
  o Jessica Yokubeak, BS, CPTC- Center for Organ Recovery and Education
  o Scott Demczyszyn, NREMT-P, CPTC-Gift of Life Donor Program
  o Jaclyn Bannon, MHA- Johns Hopkins Hospital

A panel discussion with representatives from OPOs and Transplant centers presenting how they developed and implemented their disaster preparedness and business continuity plans in light of the CMS regulations.

1005 • Transnet-The good, the bad and the ugly Moderator: Rebecca Brown, RN, MSN, CCTC-Harrisburg Hospital
  o Brian Bricker, RN-Center for Organ Recovery and Education o Christina Ryan, RN, CPTC -Gift of Life Donor Program o Sharyn Sawczak-NJOTSN, TBD-LLF
  o Melanie Sumlin, RN- Living Legacy Foundation of Maryland
  o Justin Van Denend–Washington Regional Transplant Community

An interactive session with representatives from OPOs talking about how they implemented Transnet, challenges and successes.

1035 • Break

1050 • Roundtable discussions

Attendees will move from table-to-table discussing a variety of issues with other transplant professionals in Region 2.

1150 • Lunch

1230 • Roundtable Reports

Facilitators from each table will report out on what was discussed and any call to action.

1245 • Analytical Tools and Services
Speaker: Sarah Taranto - United Network for Organ Sharing (UNOS)

Sarah Taranto, UNOS Data Analytics Manager, will provide an overview and demonstration of some of the data and visualization tools currently available from UNOS. This will include:
- Other reports currently available and coming soon to the Data Services portal in UNET.
• Demonstration of the Organ Utilization Tool developed for OPOs to use when discussing acceptance practices with their local transplant centers.
• Other types of analytical support available from UNOS

1345 • EXPANDER, USHER and THINKER Studies Moderator: Rosemary Gall, RN-Johns Hopkins Hospital
  o Exploring Transplants Using Hepatitis C Infected Donor Kidneys for HCV-Negative Recipients-Niraj Desai, MD, FACS- Director Kidney and Pancreas Transplant Program, The Johns Hopkins Hospital, Transplant Surgery Division, Department of Surgery Johns Hopkins University
  o Educating Bedside Nurses and Engaging the heart transplant recipient about Hep C and high risk donation- Maria Molina, CRNP-Nurse Practitioner-University of Pennsylvania
  o USHER and THINKER Study- David Goldberg, MD, MS- Assistant Professor of Medicine at Penn and Medical Director for Living Donor Liver Transplantation at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania

Speakers will present a review of three studies transplanting hepatitis C positive organs into hepatitis C negative recipients as well as the engagement of the bedside nurses to pave the way for recipients to be more involved in using increased risk donor organs.

1445 • Break

1500 • Stop Feeling Guilty: Helping Your Patients Understand the Positive Impact Donation Has On Donor Families Moderator: Cara Morasco-Lankenau Medical Center
  o Lara Moretti, Director of Family Services-Gift of Life Donor Program o Cassidy Shaver, MSW, LSW-Social Worker-The Lankenau Hospital
  o Vanessa Velez, Family Services Coordinator-Living Legacy Foundation of Maryland

1600 • Living Donation
  Moderator: Debbi McRann, RN, BSN, CPTC-The Living Legacy Foundation of Maryland
  Panel:
  o Cara Morasco- Lankenau Medical Center
  o Linda Wood, RN, BSN-The University of Pennsylvania o Rebecca Brown, RN, MSN, CCTC-Harrisburg Hospital
  o Nancy Atouani, RN, BSN, MSN-Medstar Georgetown University Hospital

Panel will present best practices to increase living donation at their hospitals, improve donor satisfaction and improve follow up compliance and patient education.

1645 • Closing remarks
  Debbi McRann, RN, BSN, CPTC- Living Legacy Foundation of Maryland